

MUSIC WHAKATANE

Newsletter June/July 2018

- In this newsletter:-
- AGM
- Ol' King Cole
- Other items of interest

AGM - our AGM was held on 9th April with the following trustees elected Officers of the Trust:

President: Sanja Baresic

Vice President: Tom Bayliss

Treasurer: Sue Greenwood

Secretary: Rosie Hall

Membership secretary: Gaylene Bland

Committee: Laura Austin, Mary Cassaidy, Rachel King, Caroline Stewart, Chris Chapman.

We have an exciting year ahead and we are all keen to bring the best concerts to Whakatane.

We hope you have enjoyed the concerts so far. A great start to the year with pianist John Chen's amazing performance in April, followed closely by our local Young Performers. Hammers and Horsehair was next and this duo featuring baroque music on traditional cello and box piano soon had everyone spellbound with their proficiency with the instruments, interspersed with poems and anecdotes.

Our Next Concert

Ol' King Cole

Monday 25th June 7.30pm

Salvation Army Church, King Street.

This talented trio of Louis Thompson-Munn on piano and vocals, Callum Allardie on guitar and Tom Botting on double bass, arose out of their passion for the music of Nat King Cole. Well known in the Wellington jazz scene, this trio offer a relaxed evening of traditional jazz featuring well known Nat King Cole favourites. Come and enjoy this opportunity to hear this wonderful music played by such a talented group.

Tickets at the Good Life (from 15th June)

Other items of interest:

Edgcumbe Choir – perform Hayden's Mass on 9th and 10th June.
Church of St George & St John

NZSO – Tauranga - Mozart & Beethoven, 27-30 June

Coming soon – The Kara Kollektiv – Thursday 19th July, 7.30pm.

Based in Sweden, the Kara Kollektiv are a clarinet, piano and violin trio. This is a Music Whakatane concert – more details later.

Subscriptions.

All of you should have received 2018 brochures by now with up to date information about subscribing to Music Whakatane and using Flexiticket or Friend options. We hope you are enjoying the new system. Queries to Gaylene on 308-9909.